Additional information regarding attempted service, etc:

On May 31, 2023, I attempted to personally serve the New York City Campaign Finance Board (CFB) on the 12th Floor of 100 Church Street. The security guard at the front desk in the lobby (petite, African American woman with pixie-cut red hair and glasses) would not allow me to pass stating that I did not have an appointment. The security guard provided me with a phone number (212-409-1755) and asked that I call the CFB to ask them if I could go up to the 12th floor. I called the CFB main number twice but the phone calls went to voicemail.

Then I attempted to serve the New York Law Department/ Office of Corporation Counsel on the 2nd Floor of 100 Church Street. I went to the New York Law Department/ Office of Corporation Counsel Messenger Center, which was closed for personal service at that time.

Then I attempted to serve the New York City Comptroller. The city employee (white male, medium build, gray hair, glasses) at the office told me it will accept service for Notices of Claims but not of Summons and Complaints.

On June 1, 2023, I emailed the New York Law Department/ Office of Corporation Counsel with the Summons and Complaint. It accepted service.

I also personally served the New York Law Department/ Office of Corporation Counsel with the Summons and Complaint at the Messenger Center located at 100 Church Street.

I attempted to serve the "Chief Executive" of the City, the Mayor, but was stopped by an law enforcement agent (African American male, medium build, bald, goatee, and glasses) who was working as security for City Hall. The officer informed me that the Mayor's Office does not accept service for the New York City Campaign Finance Board.

Then I sent copies of the Summons and Complaint by priority mail– with one-day delivery and tracking– to the work and home addresses of:

Amy Loprest
David Duhalde
Hannah Egerton
Frederick Schaffer, and
Bethany Perskie
